Art Unit 1733

DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

1. The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

2. Claims 12-17 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the written description requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to reasonably convey to one skilled in the relevant art that the inventor(s), at the time the application was filed, had possession of the claimed invention. This is a new matter rejection.

The examiner cannot readily find support in the original disclosure for the subject matter of new claims 12-17, and applicants have not specifically pointed out support for the new claims (MPEP 714.02).

3. Claims 1-9 and 11-17 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the enablement requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to enable one skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and/or use the invention. This is repeated from Paper Number 14 paragraph 2: applicants erroneously argue that the original disclosure's reference to the bead portions requires them to stop at the bead cores, when in fact there is clear evidence on the record (for example The Story of Tire Beads and Tires) that one of ordinary skill in the art would be aware of a multitude of possible bead portion constructions depending on the desired components and therefore would not know, without more, exactly where the "bead portion" ends and the "sidewall portion" begins.

4. Claims 1-9 and 11-17 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the written description requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to reasonably convey to one skilled in the relevant art that the inventor(s), at the time the application was filed, had possession of the claimed invention. See paragraph 3 above concerning the lack of a defined boundary between the "sidewall portions" and the adjacent "bead portions" and "tread portion".

5. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

6. Claims 1-9 and 11-17 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

See paragraph 3 above concerning the lack of a defined boundary between the "sidewall portions" and the adjacent "bead portions" and "tread portion". Also, there are numerous antecedent basis problems in the new claims (for example, the bead "cord" instead of bead core).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

7. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

8. The text of those sections of Title 35, U.S. Code not included in this action can be found in a prior Office action.

9. Claims 11 and 13 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Oshima (5,620,538).

Art Unit 1733

This reference is applied for the same reasons as set forth in Paper Number 14 paragraph 7: applicants' arguments concerning the additions to claim 1 do not apply to claim 11 which does not have these additions.

10. Claims 1-6, 9, and 11 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by British Patent Specification 1,115,834.

This reference is applied for the same reasons as set forth in Paper Number 14 paragraph 8: note the symmetrical mounting on a vehicle, p. 1 lines 55-68.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

11. The text of those sections of Title 35, U.S. Code not included in this action can be found in a prior Office action.

12. Claims 1-6, 9, and 11 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over British Patent Specification 1,115,834 in view of The Story of Tire Beads and Tires

These references are applied for the same reasons as set forth in Paper Number 14 paragraph 11: note the symmetrical mounting on a vehicle, p. 1 lines 55-68.

Conclusion

13. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
